STATEMENT OF CONCERN

In this time of budget uncertainty and challenge, Amigos continues to foster opportunities for libraries to provide outstanding service to their communities. It is their commitment to a core mission to unite libraries and strengthen their members that have made Amigos one of the largest library consortia. Not only does Amigos understand that libraries need excellent resources at affordable rates, but they also understand the need for professional development to empower librarians to succeed. Amigos leadership and its Board of Directors value its partnership with its members, and it is that dedication to their core mission that continues to make it successful. My statement of concern for Amigos is that it 1) continues to be a leader and responsive to its member libraries needs and concerns; 2) takes the lead in continuing to support Open Access publishing; 3) remains focused on its mission to provide excellent services and resources by seeking out new partnerships; and 4) will always be cognizant of the trust placed in it by its members and their monetary investment in Amigos.
